

I think the do not call list should be left the way it is. I went from getting 3 or 4 calls a day of sales solicitation for the people who had the number before us, NOT EVEN FOR US!! Now i get nothing. For what all the fees cost us (specially FCC fees) we should have the right not to be bothered by junk calls. We are aloud to filter out junk emails, why not phone calls????